“JUSTICE, JUSTICE, YOU SHALL PURSUE...”
– DEUTERONOMY 16:20
Dear Friend & Fellow Member of the ACLJ,

We have come through a truly extraordinary year of surprises and challenges. We have scored astonishing victories, some of them unexpected, in the ongoing battle for life and liberty. As this report reveals, we have much to celebrate.

But we cannot rest on our laurels, or we will lose ground. Enemies of faith and freedom are at work around the clock. We must keep fighting.

Radical Islamic jihad’s campaign of anti-Christian genocide is of paramount importance. The ACLJ has focused enormous resources on turning back this diabolical movement, and we will continue to do so. As I have said many times, this will be the defining issue of our generation. Our children’s children and their children’s children will remember us for how we responded to the attempted destruction of Christianity at the hands of jihadists around the world.

This battle, and all of our battles, depend on perseverance, tenacity, and faithfulness. Many will take a long time to win. We must be unwavering in our devotion to the cause. With your support, the ACLJ is just that.

We do not walk out of court until the final victory has been scored. We must not leave the court of public opinion until the tide has turned. Every day, we’re on multiple media channels fighting for what’s right.

Change doesn’t happen overnight. It takes commitment and courage, and I am grateful that these are two qualities our ACLJ members bring to the battle.

You have stood strong with us this year. You have my sincere thanks. God bless you!

Jay
THE ACLJ SCORED REMARKABLE VICTORIES THIS PAST YEAR.

#1 ADVOCACY GROUP

As a result of its major study — the American Culture & Faith Institute survey — the highly respected Barna organization declared the ACLJ to be #1 of the top 20 organizations creating “positive cultural change in the U.S.”

This deeply meaningful honor reflects the real power of the ACLJ’s advocacy efforts, as well as the personal involvement of committed members across the nation. Our petition and social media outreaches, along with our efforts in Congress and many courtrooms, translate into real, positive change in our culture. In courts across America, at the Supreme Court of the United States, on Capitol Hill, at the United Nations, and beyond, we are continuing to fight for life and liberty, upholding the Constitution and defending religious freedom.

FREEDOM UPHeld AT THE SUPREME COURT

Trinity Lutheran Church v. Comer

Trinity Lutheran Church of Columbia, Missouri, applied for a state tire-recycling program so that its learning center’s playground, which is open to public use, could be resurfaced. Although the church scored well among the various applicants and would have been approved, it was categorically and unconstitutionally disqualified from the child safety program simply because it is a church. The ACLJ filed a pair of amicus briefs at the Supreme Court of the United States supporting Trinity Lutheran, and the High Court’s 7-2 vote in the church’s favor represents a major victory for religious freedom, reaffirming that discrimination against religious bodies will not stand.

International Refugee Assistance

Project v. Trump

The Supreme Court has granted a partial stay, allowing key aspects of President Trump’s Executive order on immigration to stand, and has agreed to hear the case on the merits this fall. It has been the ACLJ’s position from the beginning that the President has both the constitutional and statutory authority to issue the order, which was intended to protect national security. The ACLJ has filed multiple amicus briefs backing the order, and our teams are now preparing to file a new amicus brief with the Supreme Court at the merits stage.
VICTORIES FOR PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

For years, the ACLJ has battled relentlessly on behalf of Christians under fire for their faith. This year saw a number of key victories on this battlefront.

Pastor Hassan Freed from Sudanese Prison

Pastor Hassan Abduraheem was wrongly convicted on false charges and sentenced to 12 years in prison in Sudan after providing humanitarian support for a young man badly beaten for attending a demonstration.

The ACLJ aggressively advocated on his behalf, sending letters to Sudan’s national leaders, urging them to meet their international legal obligations to not violate religious freedom. More than 200,000 ACLJ members also signed the petition. We are grateful to report that Pastor Hassan received a presidential pardon and was freed from prison.

Christian Workers in Pakistan

Naeem Nazir, a well-qualified young Christian man, applied for a post as an office assistant at a public school in Pakistan. He was hired as a sanitation worker, a job traditionally reserved for Christians on a discriminatory basis in that country. Our affiliate office, the European Centre for Law and Justice (ECLJ), filed a petition in the Lahore High Court. After a six-year battle, Naeem received his proper appointment. He plans to continue his studies and become a teacher. This is an important victory for Naeem and for the entire Pakistani Christian community.

Tragedy, then Justice

Muslims in Pakistan abducted an eight-year-old Christian girl, beat and brutalized her, stripped off her clothes, left her on the street — and coerced her family into signing away their ancestral property. All because the girl’s uncle supposedly dishonored the Muslim family by having a romantic relationship with a member of a Christian family. Authorities refused to prosecute the attackers — and arrested the girl’s family instead, based on a complaint by the Muslim family. Our Pakistan office immediately pressed charges against the Muslim family — which led to a speedy settlement. This is a major victory for religious freedom in Pakistan, where Christians are too often victimized by vendettas like this.

Justice for a Christian Woman

In Pakistan, the Organization for Legal Aid (OLA), international affiliate with our European Centre for Law and Justice office, secured a victory in the case of an elderly Christian woman, Bashiran Bibi, assaulted by an influential Muslim man for declining an invitation to clean his house. When Bashiran brought the case to the police, they refused to register it — likely after being bribed — despite her having a medical report that listed numerous injuries, including a fractured shoulder.
Our OLA office filed a petition at the local court to require police to file criminal charges against the perpetrator, Muhammad Afzal. Although he and the police resisted, our relentless pursuit prevailed. He ultimately offered to pay monetary compensation to settle the case.

The very fact that a Muslim defendant had to offer monetary compensation to a poor, elderly Christian woman is a step forward for Christians and justice in Pakistan.

NO MORE FUNDING OF FOREIGN ABORTIONS

President Trump reinstated Ronald Reagan’s Mexico City Policy, which prohibits use of U.S. taxpayer dollars as foreign aid to organizations that fund or promote abortions around the world.

Then, in continued agreement with the ACLJ, the White House actually expanded the Mexico City Policy into “Protecting Life in Global Health Assistance.” This policy applies not just to $575 million in annual foreign aid, but to $8.8 billion, a dramatic expansion of the policy — truly expressing a founding principle of our country: each individual’s God-given right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. This is a huge victory in the fight for life.

DEFENDING “IN GOD WE TRUST” FROM ATHEIST ATTACK

Famed atheist Michael Newdow filed another lawsuit to remove “In God We Trust” from our national currency, arguing that the mere presence of the National Motto on currency violates his clients’ Free Speech and Free Exercise Clause rights. The ACLJ answered by filing a critical amicus brief on behalf of 50 Members of Congress and the Committee to Protect the National Motto (120,000+ ACLJ members). The Ohio federal court agreed with us and dismissed Newdow’s lawsuit. He is appealing; we’ll keep fighting.

PROTECTING CHILDREN FROM EXPLOITATION

Recognizing our duty to protect all young children from harm, the ACLJ stood with the State of Georgia in its defense of a law protecting young children from sexual exploitation online. ACLJ Chief Counsel Jay Sekulow was appointed as a Special District Attorney for the State of Georgia and represented the State, leading a team of senior ACLJ attorneys who prepared and filed three briefs on behalf of the State; Jay also presented oral arguments before Georgia’s Supreme Court. The court agreed with us unanimously and upheld the critical law against a legal assault.

PRAYER PROTECTED

An Illinois high school art teacher wanted to hold a monthly prayer meeting with school staff and parents before or after school hours to pray for the students and the school. When the school administration banned the meetings, the teacher contacted the ACLJ. We informed her that the law allows her to pray or study the Bible during her free time if it does not conflict with her job responsibilities — and parents should be allowed to meet on school property on an equal access basis as an outside group. Using information we provided, the teacher obtained the administration’s compliance with the U.S. Constitution and our nation’s laws.

PRO-LIFE PREGNANCY CENTER WIN

A New York City law laid onerous regulations on pro-life crisis pregnancy centers, plus crippling fines and penalties for failure to comply. The goal: shut down pro-life centers — and set a nationwide legal precedent at the same time. The ACLJ fought back, filing a lawsuit, Evergreen Association, Inc. v. City of New York, on behalf of two organizations that run about half of the pro-life crisis pregnancy centers in NYC. We won on four of the five components of the law, but kept fighting the fifth, filing a certiorari petition with the Supreme Court. Finally, after years of work, a settlement agreement has been reached — a significant victory in the fight for life.

ANGRY ATHEIST ATTACK FAILS

A 90-hour Bible-reading marathon has occurred annually on the steps of the Bleckley County Courthouse in Georgia every year since 2004. This year, atheists objected, and the Cochran-Bleckley Ministerial Alliance contacted the ACLJ. We sent a letter to the Bleckley County attorney explaining the law — the First Amendment guarantees that individuals can express their religious views in a public forum, and the county courthouse steps represent such a forum. Religious speech can’t be silenced simply because it is religious. The marathon went off without a hitch, a victory for religious freedom.

These are only a few of the many victories achieved by the ACLJ this year in our ongoing pursuit of LIBERTY with the strong support of committed members like you. Thank you!
SHADOW GOVERNMENT CASES

The ACLJ is working to expose and stop deep-cover government bureaucrats put in place by Barack Obama to leak classified information, subverting our Constitution and sabotaging our democracy. A number of these cases started out as simple legal requests under the Freedom of Information Act; but the government has demonstrated a pattern and practice of stonewalling and failure to comply with the law, so we’ve been forced to file lawsuits to get information the public rightfully deserves.

ACLJ v. State Dept.: Exposing government lies and the cover-up of the deadly Iran nuclear deal.

ACLJ v. State Dept.: Uncovering the government’s failure to protect Christians from genocide and uphold U.S. legal commitments to the Genocide Convention.

ACLJ v. State Dept.: Exposing collusion between the Obama State Department and the Clinton Foundation. The ACLJ just won a huge victory forcing the government to produce 60,000+ emails which could prove critical in this case.

ACLJ v. State Dept.: Uncovering how the Obama Administration funded groups campaigning to “take down” Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu during his re-election campaign.

ACLJ v. Department of Justice: Exposing potential election-meddling by President Obama’s Attorney General and the Clinton campaign.

We’ve just scored a major victory in federal court, exposing lies, collusion, and more.

ACLJ v. NSA: Fighting in federal court to stop dangerous criminal violations of our national security by exposing the coordinated leaking of highly classified intelligence across the federal bureaucracy.

ACLJ v. State Dept.: Uncovering the details surrounding President Obama’s failure to veto a United Nations (U.N.) Security Council resolution that betrayed and abandoned Israel.

ACLJ v. NSA: Exposing the truth about former National Security Advisor Susan Rice’s “unmasking” of President Trump’s transition officials who were caught up in surveillance — a scandal that rocked the intelligence community.

ISRAEL

Our Jerusalem-based Special Operations Unit is working relentlessly in support of Israel’s sovereignty and security. In addition, ACLJ Chief Counsel Jay Alan Sekulow has spoken twice before the U.N. General Assembly (most recently with U.S. Ambassador to the U.N. Nikki Haley) in support of Israel. The ACLJ also co-produced a major U.N. event gathering policymakers, leaders, academics, and others from around the world to focus on fighting BDS — the dangerous Boycott, Divestment, and Sanctions movement. And the ACLJ is working with Members of Congress to end U.S. taxpayer funding of the Palestinian Authority, which is partnered with the terror group Hamas, one that has repeatedly attacked Israel in significant ways.

PRO-LIFE CASES

The ACLJ continues its decades-long leadership in the fight for life. We’re taking the massively important case of Livingwell Medical Clinic v. Becerra to the Supreme Court of the United States to keep government from forcing pro-life crisis pregnancy centers to advertise for Big Abortion. We’re asking the High Court to hear National Abortion Federation v. Center for Medical Progress as well; the NAF is suing to keep CMP from releasing additional videos revealing the abortion industry’s gruesome harvesting and marketing of aborted babies’ body parts. And we’re pushing Congress to defund Planned Parenthood this year!

BUXTON V. KURTINITIS

The Community College of Baltimore County denied our client, Dustin Buxton, admission to the radiation therapy program solely because of his expression of his religious beliefs. We filed a lawsuit with the U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland to protect his First Amendment rights.

AMERICAN HUMANIST ASSOCIATION V. CITY OF OCALA

The American Humanist Association sued the City of Ocala, as well as the police department, police chief, and mayor, for encouraging local residents to attend a Community Prayer Vigil for young victims of a shooting — because the event included prayer and religious messages. The ACLJ is representing defendants, fighting to protect their freedoms of religion and expression. We’ve concluded oral arguments and look forward to the court’s ruling.

FIGHTING THE IRS

For years, the ACLJ has been fighting the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) after it unlawfully targeted conservative and Tea Party groups during a critical election year. The IRS was used as a political weapon to silence Christian and conservative groups. We have fought diligently to gain tax-exempt status for the targeted groups and expose the IRS’s corruption — the most recent victory coming just recently when a Tea Party group we represent finally received tax-exempt status after nearly eight long years.

Since 2013, the ACLJ has represented more than 41 conservative and pro-life groups from 22 states in lawsuits against the IRS. We currently represent 38 groups in federal court seeking to hold the IRS and Obama Administration officials accountable for their actions. This latest victory is significant, but our efforts to hold a corrupt IRS accountable continue in federal court.

The cases and issues we're engaged in right now are critically important to the future of your constitutional freedoms, to our ally Israel, to religious liberties around the world, and to the lives of the unborn. Please keep standing with the ACLJ as we fight for your values.
ANTI-CHRISTIAN GENOCIDE: THE ISSUE OF OUR GENERATION

Christian children, publicly raped Christian women, crashes Christian toddlers to death, burns Christians alive, maims a young Christian boy in front of his father before crucifying them both, and the horrific list goes on. Anti-Christian persecution is skyrocketing. Christians are being hunted down like animals, tortured, and killed. “Persecution” isn’t a strong enough word for what’s happening to thousands and thousands of people, simply because they believe in Jesus—all with a single, simple, sinister goal: to wipe Christianity off the face of the earth.

The ACLJ is at the forefront of this fight. Chief Counsel Jay Alan Sekulow is in Washington advocating a five-point plan for crushing ISIS and protecting Christians from genocide.

And we continue to fight on multiple fronts for Christian individuals targeted by radical Islam:

• We are representing a Christian woman in Pakistan whose three-year-old daughter was raped by a Muslim man. The defendant has been arrested. The court is waiting for the police’s investigation report.

• Asia Bibi is a young Christian mother sentenced to death in Pakistan for her faith. She would be the first woman executed under Pakistan’s Shariah blasphemy law. Through the European Centre for Law and Justice and its partner in Pakistan, we’re fighting tirelessly to stop this atrocity.

• American Pastor Andrew Brunson, a U.S. citizen from North Carolina, has been falsely charged in Turkey with “membership in an armed terrorist organization.” He has been a Christian pastor in Turkey for the past 23 years. If convicted, he could face years in prison based on extremely serious— and false—charges. The ACLJ has been representing his family, mobilizing our international resources, and demanding Pastor Andrew’s freedom.
The Anti-Christian genocide is the defining issue of our generation. We will be remembered for how we responded to this horror.   Free American Pastor Andrew Brunson
- 285,643
  Stop the Shadow Government: Protect our National Security
- 270,516
  Defend Israel from Anti-Israel Attacks Across the Globe
- 247,429

The ACLJ litigates in state and federal courts across the nation, with a specific focus on the Supreme Court of the United States. In the past year, we filed in the following strategic cases:

Livingwell Medical Clinic v. Becerra: We’re asking the Supreme Court of the United States to overturn lower court rulings and prevent California from forcing pro-life crisis pregnancy centers to advertise for Big Abortion.

National Abortion Federation v. Center for Medical Progress: The NAF is suing to prevent CMP from releasing more videos exposing the abortion industry’s grisly trade in aborted babies’ body parts.

Trinity Lutheran Church v. Comer: We filed an amicus brief supporting a preschool that was denied funding for safe playground equipment simply because it was located at a church.

Advocate Health Care Network v. Stapleton: We’ve filed an amicus brief supporting religiously affiliated hospitals.

International Refugee Assistance Project v. Trump: We’ve filed amicus briefs supporting the President’s travel ban to protect America’s borders and our national security; this fall, we will file another amicus brief at the Supreme Court when the Justices hear the merits of the case.

THROUGH GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS AND LEGISLATIVE ACTION

The ACLJ is actively involved in government affairs at both the state and federal levels. We’ve worked with Members of Congress in support of significant legislation this year:

- H.R. 781 — Free Speech Fairness Act:
  The ACLJ is supporting this legislation, which would amend the IRS tax code and allow churches and houses of worship to speak out on moral issues of the day without fear of losing tax-exempt status.
- H.R. 1628 — to defund Planned Parenthood, and to repeal and replace ObamaCare.
- H.J. Res. 43 — to overturn President Obama’s 11th-hour protection of Planned Parenthood’s taxpayer funding by restoring the states’ freedom to defund the abortion giant.
- S. 2040 — Justice Against Sponsors of Terrorism Act: We fought for this bill, which allows victims of 9/11 to sue Saudi Arabia. The bill passed in the House and Senate, President Obama vetoed it; then Congress overrode the veto.

AT THE UNITED NATIONS

The ACLJ works on international issues through our team at the United Nations in New York and in Geneva, Switzerland.

- We submitted key legal documents and presented two oral interventions at the United Nations Human Rights Council (UNHRC) regarding the genocide of Christians.
- We sent key legal letters to the former U.N. Secretary General, the U.N. Office of the Special Adviser on the Prevention of Genocide, and the former and current U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations.
- We submitted letters to the 47 member states of the UNHRC and the former and current U.S. Secretary of State.
- Chief Counsel Jay Sekulow spoke at the U.N. General Assembly alongside U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Nikki Hayley regarding protecting Israel from the dangerous Boycott, Divestment, and Sanctions movement.

— M.J.M., Illinois

“We support your efforts. My wife and I can’t physically ‘Fight the Fight,’ but you can and you do.”

“If it weren’t for the ACLJ, I would have probably never received my tax-exemption status for my nonprofit, whose mission is to advocate for foster care children and to raise awareness about child abuse in communities. I will be forever grateful to have had them in my corner when I needed them most.”
— Stacy Sutphen, Anna Forlenza Foundation

“NE Tarrant Tea Party is widely considered the largest and most active tea party in all of Texas – and we wouldn’t be here if the ACLJ hadn’t stepped in to help us. I cannot emphasize strongly enough the significant role the ACLJ has played behind the scenes throughout the past five years.”
— Julie McCarty, NE Tarrant Tea Party, President (Tarrant County, TX)

“Thank you to all ... who worked on my case. Your part in fighting for truth and justice warmed my heart, and I will always speak the highest praise to our Creator and to others for your diligence toward these values. To create a legacy of defending life, liberty, and religious freedom with the ACLJ, while benefiting yourself and your family, consider these excellent options:

A BEQUEST IN YOUR WILL means an estate tax charitable deduction, lessening the burden of taxes on your family — and leaving a lasting legacy.

A CHARITABLE GIFT ANNUITY (CGA) will give you or you and your spouse income for life and a charitable tax deduction now — all while helping the ACLJ continue the work to which you are committed.

A GIFT OF STOCKS, instead of a gift of cash after selling stocks, allows the ACLJ to receive the full value of the stock instead of what’s left after payment of taxes.

A TRUST can benefit both you and the ACLJ. Find multiple trust options at ACLJLegacy.org.

A GIFT OF LIFE INSURANCE you no longer need can make a convenient, tax-deductible charitable gift, with tax deductions on the premiums being paid or the cash value of the policy.

AN IRA ROLLOVER GIFT may simplify your tax return, as charitable distributions (counting toward your required minimum distributions) up to $100,000 are not included in your federal taxable income. If you are age 70½ or older, Congress has made this option permanent.

For help with these or other special gift or estate planning options, please visit our planned-giving website, ACLJLegacy.org.
